SOCIETY

CHIEF among the numerous entertainments during fair week was a charming informal tea given at the Mansion by Mrs. Claude Swanson in honor of her guests, Mrs. Rucker, Penn. of Danville, Mrs. Sale of Norfolk, the Misses Anderson, of Alexandria, and Miss Mary Osborne Templeton, of Waynesboro. A number of Mrs. Swanson's Richmond friends dropped in between 5 and 7 P. M. Thursday to meet the members of her house party and enjoy a chat with their agreeable hostess.

Mrs. Swanson received her callers in the salon parlors, and was handsomely gowned in lavender and Irish point lace, and wore pearls. Mrs. Carol H. Montague, who served punch, wore a gown of white crepe de chine with insets of lace. Mrs. Swanson was also assisted in the dining-room by Mrs. Dabney Carr, in black satin and duchess lace; by Mrs. Andrew J. Gray, Jr., in a charming blue frock, with black picture hat, and by her sister, Mrs. Cunningham Hall, in white embroidered batiste, and a number of the prettiest young girls in Richmond society.

The tea table in the dining-room had a big vase of American Beauty roses as centerpiece, and was further decorated by red-shaded candles in silver sticks, red gauze ribbon, tins and bonbons carrying out the decorative idea.
